NOTE FOR: EO/DDA

FROM: EA/ExDir

 has approved the expenditure of money for utilities connections related to the new building, in accordance with the recent delegation of authority for renovations received from the DCI. However, the "Certificate" for unusual expenditures under the CIA Act of 1949 refers to provisions under Section 7 of the Public Buildings Act of 1949 (40 U.S.C. 606). Before sending this "Certificate" on to the DDCI for approval, suggest a review of which section referred to. I can find no Section 7 in Title 40.
